

NO. 21

OWINGSVILLE OUTLOOK

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
OWINGSVILLE, - - KY.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, at the Owingsville, Ky., Postoffice as second-class matter.

THE OUTLOOK'S subscription rates are as follows:
One year - One Dollar.
Six months - Sixty Cents.
Three months - Thirty-five Cents.

No commissions allowed anybody on subscriptions.

Subscribers desiring a change of address should give previous address when writing.

Correspondents should always get their items to us not later than Monday if possible; when out of stationery mention it on a separate slip of paper.

News matter of general interest is welcomed, bringing it in without delay if you wish it inserted.

Advertisers wishing a change or discontinuance of ads, should inform us the week previous to publication day.

Address all communications to JAMES W. HOSAKER, Owingsville, Ky.

THURSDAY, DEC. 3, 1908.

NOTWITHSTANDING that Mrs. Gunness was an undesirable citizen whose removal was a boon to the world, the jury at Laporte, Ind., trying Roy Lamphere on charge of causing the death of Mrs. Gunness and her children, found him guilty and gave him twenty-one years in prison.

THERE is said to be a movement on foot among the county boards of control of the Burley Tobacco Society to make President Clarence LeBass, a Republican, an independent candidate for Governor of Kentucky next term. Three years is a long way off and things are liable to happen meanwhile.

If the next Congress undertakes genuine tariff reform of the Roosevelt-Taft kind there will be something doing on the part of the Republicans. If the Republican leaders were, not so smart there would be grave danger of a split of the Republican party, but the Democrats are likely to hold the record in that respect for a long time yet.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondents MUST get their items to us Monday if they expect them to be printed. And please remember that visits between neighbors are not news.

SUDITH.

Had a good rain the past week. It is said that mad dogs are numerous about here.

A very large wolf has been seen on Skidmore hill.

Claude Crouch has pneumonia.

Miss Martha Pergem is better of her illness.

James Crouch and Mrs. Kate Yarborough, of Yale, visited Claude Crouch last week.

R. M. Crouch, who had his leg broken last week, is improving.

ODESSA.

Robert Barr, of Nicholas county, visited John T. Guggell one night last week.

R. L. Crouch sold Frank Jones a pair of mules for $175.

A. C. Hendrix bought a yearling mare mule of J. S. Anderson for $135.

W. S. Anderson went to Lincoln county last week.

John S. Anderson is gradually growing weaker and realizes that his once strong nerve is giving way.

Several who killed hogs last week and week before are now alarmed. Some have taken the bones out and found the meat beginning to sour.

UPPER PRICKLY ASH.

The sick are all better.

Dean Carr and sister Miss Mary Lou, of near Mt. Sterling, visited relatives here from Monday till Friday of last week.

Colburn Hamilton was called to Montgomery county Sunday to the bedside of his sister Mrs. Era Moore, who has pneumonia.

Thos. H. Carr and Mrs. Brumgren, of near Mt. Sterling, visited here Friday and Saturday.

Charles Harper sold his tobacco crop to Wm. Clay, of Mt. Sterling, at 14c per pound.

Riley Chandler sold 17 acres of land (recently belonging to Stanton Hamilton) to John Jones for $1,100.

John Doyle is greeting a house for Wm. Everman on the farm of the James Clark farm he bought.

Bethel.

George Harper and family, of Paris, visited W. R. Whaley and family last week.

Mrs. Schlegel, of Mt. Sterling, visited W. J. Whaley and family last week.

Mrs. T. L. Peters, Misses Luan Huzzard and Susie Clinkenbeard attended a masquerade party given by Miss Mona Lee Peters, near Flemingsburg, last Thursday night.

T. S. Robertson and family visited Mrs. Ruth Dodsword, at Cincinnati, last week.

Mules are in good demand and some owners have changed hands at good prices.

J. R. Peters and wife went to Lexington Friday.

Owingsville, N. F. D. 3.

Wallace Wright has been attending the bedside of his son Lewis, near Grange City, who is very sick.

Mrs. J. T. Rawlings, of Colfax, visited her parents, G. W. Barber and wife, Sunday.

Espy and Earl Barber, who are attending the Morehead Normal school, spent Thanksgiving with their parents here.

Jas. Lyons, of Sharpburg, was here Friday.

Mrs. J. M. Moore and niece Miss Effie Barber visited friends at Ringo's Mill and Hillsboro last week.

Frank Button, of Morehead, has returned home, after spending a few days with friends here.

Everett Barber sold a lot of shoats to R. E. Taylor, at Se.

John Rawlings and family visited relatives at Grange City Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Thompson, of Ringo's Mill, visited Mrs. Everett Barber, who has been sick, but is better.

Stonestone.

Misses Lillie and Sudie Williams, of Peleed Oak, are visiting their entertainment, the Misses Thompson, on Stepstone.

Miss Setta Carmichael left Monday for her home at McCauley, after a two-weeks' visit with her cousin Miss Myrtle Carmichael.

Charlie Payne and bride visited Virgil Monjoy and wife several days last week.

Miss Artie Ragan visited Miss Nannie Dawson, at Owingsville, from Saturday till Monday.

Levis Messer, of Ashland, was here Sunday.

We are having a good Sunday-school at Corinth, and are fixing for an entertainment and Christmas tree.

Mrs. Mary Sexton, of Craigs, is visiting her daughter Mrs. J. E. Carmichael, who is no better of her illness.

Leslie, the 14-year-old son of Anderson Bailey, of color, went to jump on the train, his foot slipped and threw him under the wheels and mangled both limbs. He died in a short time.

Grooks.

Sam Latham shipped a carload of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Wednesday.

Born, to Will Ross and wife, Nov. 22, a daughter.

Mrs. Will Satterfield and children visited relatives in Owingsville Friday and Saturday.

Wilson & Hendrix shipped a carload each of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Saturday.

Mrs. Bob Overbey, of Olympia, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Ben Hart here.

Turner Stull was badly hurt Saturday a week ago by being thrown from his buggy as he was coming from Mt. Sterling.

B. Frank Wells, of Craigs, was here last week visiting his brother Zack.

Miss Mary Pendleton, of Salt Lick, visited her sister Mrs. Wes Levens several days last week.

John Caudill and wife of Montgomery county, visited Perry Shultz and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Slato Valley.

Very warm, windy, threatening weather; too warm for hog-killing.

Henry Tineher bought a lot of hogs of George Hunt at $2 per head.

Wm. Toy has rented a farm near Bethel of Wm. and Andy Manley and will move to it the 1st of March.

Mrs. Dick Manley was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Traylor one day last week.

John Staten and wife, of near Olympia, were guests of Mrs. Stanton's sister Mrs. Melissa Snedgar Saturday night. Mrs. Snedgar and Mr. Staten and wife were guests of Newton Shroat and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Manley and children, of Craigs, were guests of Chris Garner and family the past week.

A. K. Coyle and wife, of Prickly Ash, were the guests of their daughter Mrs. Dee Rucker one day last week.

Jack Toy and wife, of near Wyoming, were guests of Sam Shultz and wife Sunday.

Alfred Rodgers and Jas. Woodard are on the sick list.

We have had some very warm days lately, with light showers.

A. C. Hendrix bought 10 steers at $21 per head.

On Thursday evening about 7 o'clock Charley Starrett committed suicide by shooting himself at his home at Pebble, the ball penetrating the brain. The inquest was held by the Coroner the following day and the body interred in Gilead Cemetery. He was about forty years of age and leaves two children, both girls, one here at home and one in Missouri.

On Friday morning at 9 o'clock the body of a cow, and footed from this earthly home Willie Woodward, son of Joel Woodward and his first wife. Willie had been in failing health for two years and had gone to Colorado, thinking it would benefit his health, though to no avail. Every body who saw the dead hands could see it. He leaves a widow, one son and a host of friends to mourn his decease. Buried in Longview Cemetery at Bethel.

Stoons.

Up to Monday noon the rain had failed to make a sufficient amount of stone to cut.

Those who had been holding pooled tobacco in their barns rushed it to the various warehouses last week.

James, little son of E. A. Groves, is seriously ill. He is taken to the hospital to undergo an operation.

Jos. Coons and wife, of Bourbon county, visited the family of Squire John Trinkle last week.

H. C. Fictlin lost by death a $200-horse.

Thomas N. Coons and wife, of North Middletown, spent Thanksgiving with relatives here.

James Rogers moved Saturday to Flat Creek, Ohio. Rogers moved to the place vacated by Rogers.

J. J. Mark's many friends in Montgomery county are sorry to hear of his serious illness.

The know-it-alls who predicted that the tobacco crop would not last but a few hours longer are now listening to a different tune. It is a mighty poor instrument that won't play two different tunes.

John Jones, of Salt Well, will move into J. M. Bigstaff's farm this week.

Richard Mallory, formerly of this county, has been seriously ill at Muncie, Illinois.

Thanksgiving passed off very tamely in this section; only about a dozen of the finest and required ten wagons to remove the game but the empty shells of the bluegrass pastures.

Robert Williams, of Owingsville, was here last week.

Olympia.

Miss Grace Parks, of Preston, visited Miss Ethel Swarts Thanksgiving day.

John Williamson, of Mucklow, West Virginia, came Tuesday to move his mother and sisters to West Virginia.

C. M. Swarts, of Georgetown, Ill., is spending a few days with his parents, George Swarts and wife.

Mrs. J. W. Kinead is visiting her daughter Mrs. W. J. Sewell, who is here on a visit.

Will go from there to Darbyville, Va. to visit another daughter Mrs. Mae Gaylen.

Mac Stephens and sister Kate and their cousin Mr. See, all of Howard's Mill, were here Thursday.

Mrs. Effie Roberts has moved to Aden's Springs.

Misses Melissa, Glida and Iva Reynolds, of See's, were guests of Miss Nannie Fowler Thursday.

Miss Anna Shultz is some better of her eye trouble.

Mrs. M. T. Case and sister Helen visited relatives in Frenchburg last week.

Herbie Costigan has been visiting in Sharpburg. The Sharpburg boys had better watch him.

Joe Hash has moved back from Illinois to make Old Kentucky his home.

Mrs. Sarah Smith is visiting her son, Mr. Talmage Clark, at Ashland.

Elder Carpenter preached his farewell sermon here Saturday night. It was a masterly effort. The good people of Olympia are truly sorry to give him up. He has completed his second year here and has built up the church and been of much help to the community. We hardly know where to find one to fill his place. We hope, however, he will call on us whenever he can make it convenient and not forget old Olympia.

Olympia is "it" once more. The entertainment passed off nicely Thanksgiving night, and was excellent.

Those who assisted her should have full credit for it. When Olympia tries to make anything a success, success is assured. Many thanks to those who contributed to its success; also the teacher extended thanks for the nice order which prevailed.

Miss Minnie Jackson, of Owingsville, was the guest of friends here Saturday night and Sunday.

Salt Lick.

Lafe Harris came down from Winchester Tuesday to visit the family of J. T. Evans.

Willis Lewis and family left for West Liberty to make their home.

Prof. A. L. Stone made a flying trip to Cincinnati Tuesday.

Miss Maude Otis went to Mt. Sterling Monday.

Mrs. Joe Payne, of Lexington, visited the family of Mrs. W. Dicken.

Richard Jones and family have moved back to their farm near Licking Union.

John Craig sold his horse and drag wagon to Robert L. Myers for $90.

Mrs. Vaulter and Mrs. Kerry, of Fayette, are the successors of President Lincoln. This copy of the greatest daily in America was a folio of six broad columns and was filled with news and a little foreign news and two editorials. Nearly two pages were given to proprietary medicine advertisements. The great majority of country weeklies now furnish more news than the Herald did then. It is difficult to realize the great progress of newspapers without such a comparison.

SPECIAL JUDGE. Judge W. S. Gangel went to West Liberty last week, returning home Saturday morning. While there he presided as Special Judge in the Circuit Court to try the case of Charles Johnson, charged with shooting James Boggs in Elliott county. Boggs died of a wound inflicted by Johnson. Johnson was sentenced to life imprisonment. The case of appeal granted a new trial and the case was transferred to Morgan county because of the prejudice in Lawrence county against Johnson. The jury gave him ten years in prison, which was considered a signal for the case was transferred to Morgan county because of the prejudice in Lawrence county against Johnson. The jury gave him ten years in prison, which was considered a signal for the case was transferred to Morgan county because of the prejudice in Lawrence county against Johnson.

His ALARM CLOCK. "I guess," said the Yankee who had been asked to admire an echo, "you don't know anything in Law county in this country. Why, at my country place up in the Rocky Mountains, I have heard an echo that heeds the echo of your voice. When I go to bed I put my head out of the window and say, 'Time to get up' and the voice wakes me in the morning." - Illustrated Review.

NEEDED PRAYERS OF PEOPLE. The late Lord Seckville, as all the world knows, became persona grata to the government while he was ambassador to Washington, through expressing an opinion on the political situation.

"It was through a mean trick that Lord Seckville was led into this position of opinion."

Once, in describing the trick to me, he compared himself to a country clergyman.

"This clergyman," he explained, "was waited on one Sunday morning by a young man."

"Will you kindly ask the congregation's prayers this morning," said the young man, "for poor William Smith."

"Willingly," said the clergyman.

"And at the proper moment in the service he besought all those present to pray earnestly for the unfortunate William Smith in the great trouble and peril that encompassed him."

"The request, he was pleased to note, made a deep impression on the congregation."

"After the service, meeting the young man who asked for intercession in Smith's behalf, the clergyman said:

"What is the matter with your friend? Do you think it is a very good if I were to call on him?"

"I'm afraid not," was the sorrowful reply.

"Is it as bad as that?" said the clergyman. "What is the trouble then?"

"The trouble," said the other, "is going to be married."

ALTERS THE CASE. - Crawford I thought you were delighted with the present your wife gave you.

Crawshaw - At that time I did not know she had hid charcoal.

ADVERTISED LETTERS. - Letters addressed to the following named unclaimed for in the Owingsville postoffice Dec. 1, 1908. Those calling for same will please say they are advertised in Rev. J. C. Clear, Rev. J. P. Cox, Dr. G. L. Barr, H. P. Shroat, Snedegar & Davis, The Denosens, Mrs. Margaret Knox, Arvil Howard.

J. A. BARNES, P. M.

HAD EYE REMOVED. - Jim (Jackson) Thompson, of color, went to Lexington last week and had one of his eyes removed. He had been sent to the town rockpile by Police Judge W. W. Power and while breaking rock a fragment from another fellow's hammer struck him on the eyelid and penetrated through the lid into the eyeball, destroying the sight and necessitating the removal of the eyeball.

SAUNDERSON-SCOTT. - Oliver Saunders and Miss Edith Boyd Scott were licensed to wed and, it is understood, were married at Flemingsburg Tuesday, Dec. 1.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Charles R. Scott, of Sherburne, and is a young lady of unblemished beauty and womanly charm.

The bridegroom is a son of Samuel Saunders, a prosperous farmer of near Sherburne on the Bath county side, and is said to be a fine young man, worthy and capable.

OLD NEWSPAPER. - John K. Richards showed the writer a copy of the New York Herald of April 16, 1865, containing the account of the assassination of President Lincoln. This copy of the greatest daily in America was a folio of six broad columns and was filled with news and a little foreign news and two editorials. Nearly two pages were given to proprietary medicine advertisements. The great majority of country weeklies now furnish more news than the Herald did then. It is difficult to realize the great progress of newspapers without such a comparison.

Wm. Clayton will leave for Texas the first of December to locate.

Miss Eva McKinnin went to Mt. Sterling Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving.

The supper given by the Graded School Thursday night for the benefit of the library was quite successful.

John Craig contemplates going to Ashland soon to make his home.

Little Christine Whitcomb, of Ashland, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. Bates this week.

Born, to the wife of Sam Jones, Nov. 28, a little girl.

Miss Lula Evans, of Hillsboro, visited Cecil Evans this week.

Mrs. Sherman Gullett was in Mt. Sterling this week.

Did, Nov. 24, Mrs. Milton Evans. She had long been a sufferer. She was a good Christian woman and bore her illness bravely to the last. John called her to the sweet home in Heaven. She leaves a husband and two children, friends to mourn their loss. She was laid to rest in the Kring graveyard. She was 50 years of age. She was loved by everybody that knew her and always had a kind word and a sweet smile for all.

Tobacco Growers, Notice. - Winchester, Ky., Nov. 28, 1908. We desire to announce to you that we have sold all of the tobacco remaining in the 1906 pool and the entire 1907 pool. The 1906 tobacco has been sold at the original graded prices and the 1907 at graded prices which will average 17c per pound.

We congratulate you on this successful issue of your long struggle, for you who have stood firm in the face of good report and evil report through weary months of waiting and hardship are the men who won the victory.

The purchasers are ready to receive this tobacco as rapidly as possible, and we ask you to render us all assistance you can by completing your pricing and sending in your type samples with as much promptness as possible.

We desire to warn you against transferring your tobacco certificates to speculators, not because you are selling property which has already been sold to you thus violating the laws of our Commonwealth and laying yourselves liable to heavy penalties, but because you deserve the entire profits of this transaction and because in a very short time your money will be paid you. Pay no attention to those who tell you that you will have a long time to wait, for the distribution will be rapid and prompt. An auctioneer has passed for the immediate distribution of 8 per cent. of the 10 per cent. refund fund, now at hand, and the money from the present sale will follow close upon the delivery of your tobacco.

EXECUTIVE BOARD BURLY TOBACCO SOCIETY.

The oldest living thing is said to be a cypress tree standing in Chetumal, Mexico, reputed to be 6,290 years old.

Job Printing.

Why not have THE OUTLOOK do your printing? We can do it as well and as cheaply as you can consider. Run over this list and see if there isn't something in it you need.

Letterheads, Noteheads, Envelopes, Billheads, Statements, Pamphlets, Blank Forms of all kinds.

We have both rag and bond (or linen) writing paper, ruled and unruled (for typewriter), rag and bond envelopes. We put printing papers in tablets with blotting paper cover as desired.

We have for sale in any quantity blanks, such as deeds, mortgages and oil leases.

Address THE OUTLOOK, OWINGSVILLE, KY.

Commissioner's Sale.

BATH CIRCUIT COURT. J. B. Goodpastor, Plaintiff. Perry Oakes, Defendant. Notice. By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Bath Circuit Court rendered at the October term, 1908, in the above-styled case the undersigned Master Commissioner, will, on the 14th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1908, at about one o'clock p. m., sell to the highest bidder at public outcry on the Court-house door in Owingsville, Kentucky, a parcel of real estate lying in Bath county, Ky., and bounded as follows: Beginning at a corner on the Preston pike near the lowest gate post of the old passway gate on Peleed Oak Branch, thence south with the old Kelsie line to a corner in the line of Thomas Botts and the Hicks farm, thence east with the line of said Kelsie and Hicks and Botts, negroes, to a corner in the line of the old Wade place, thence north to a tract of land now occupied by William Botts, of color, with the Botts line fence to the county road, thence with the county road to a beech tree near north bar post in the west side of road, thence running west in a straight line to a corner near the old passway road to a corner south of the graveyard, thence north of west on a straight line to a corner on the east side of the old passway road near a sycamore on the east branch of Peleed Oak Branch, thence with the bluff of said branch to a sugar tree, thence west across said branch to the beginning, containing about one hundred and twenty-five acres more or less.

Enough said land will be sold to satisfy plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, which on day of sale will aggregate $260.44.

Sale will be made on credit of six months for the purchase price. The purchaser will be required to execute a sale bond with good surety to the Master Commissioner, bearing six per cent. interest per annum from day of sale, and paying the purchase price and effect of a judgment. The purchase price will remain in the property until it is paid.

D. W. McCarty, J. S. C. C. J. N. Nesbitt, Attys.

SUICIDE. - Wilkes Jones, aged about 64 years, committed suicide at his home in Springfield Church neighborhood Tuesday afternoon by cutting his throat. Despondency over ill health is said to be the cause of the deed. He leaves a wife but no children. He served as a soldier on the Confederate side in the Civil war.

A large number of hogs have been slaughtered in this vicinity the past day or two.

The Fiscal Court convened here Tuesday.

WORTH TRYING. - The cashier in the usual, daily loss in new money, crisp and sweet-smelling bank notes is that it was pleasant to handle.

Why is it, George, that you insist upon new money always? I know you hand every cent of it to your wife?"

"The loom boss chuckled."

"It's easy to see you are not a married man, Will," said he, "or you'd know woman's nature better, and wouldn't need the good of taking new money home with the wife."

"Will, that women are so fond of new money that they hate to part with it. They bargain for it and deny themselves that, and the upshot is that at the end of each week they have a tidy little sum, brand new, put away in a stocking or a teapot."

"It says, Will, to give the wife new money. It pays something like 20 per cent."

LAND FOR SALE.

One-third interest in 3,000 acres of land in eastern part of Kentucky, it being the land allotted to Mrs. Margaret E. Kerns, in the division of her grandfather's estate. Title genuine, payments easy. See or address

B. W. KEENE, rfd 1, Sharpburg, Ky.

##